Land Girls to Visit a Calf Rearing Shed (Claire Butler)

LAND GIRLS. Taranaki LandGirls invite you to visit a working calf rearing shed at 343 Kelly Rd, Lepperton, 9,00am Sunday 29 July. Our host has been raising calves for 17 years and has plenty of useful tips to share. Whether you're raising two, ten or a 100 calves, many of the same principles apply. Even if you aren't raising any principles apply. Even if you aren't raising any calves at all, this visit will give an interesting insight into an aspect of farming that is part and parcel of our dairy industry. Please bring warm clothes and wear clean boots. Anyone who has visited a calf shed or had any contact with other calves should disinfect their boots to minimise the risk of transferring any sicknesses. $5 pp at the door. RSVP by Friday 27 July to Shonagh Hopkirk, 7520889, shopkirk@gmail.com.

Gardening with Clueless Vinter is here but just becar the rain, wind and cold have arrived doesn't mean you can't arrived doesn't mean you can't still have a great indoor herb garden. Indoor herbs are lusciously green and wonderfully fragrant, and also add to those winter stews, soups, pastas. The best herbs to grow inside are: Basil, Chives, Parsley, Sage, Thyme. Mint and Rosemary. Not the best time to start from seed it is better to either start with seedlings or an established
